Evaluation of the Intellectual Disability Mental Health Connect webtool
Prof Julian Trollor

1. What is the research study about?

You are invited to take part in this research study. The research study aims to evaluate the new Intellectual Disability Mental Health Connect (IDMH Connect) webtool that has recently launched in NSW. This webtool aims to help people with intellectual disability and their support networks to navigate the mental health system in NSW and to support professionals to promote high quality and collaborative approaches to service delivery for this population.

You have been invited because you are a mental health, health, disability or social service professional.

2. Who is conducting this research?

The study is being carried out by the following researchers: Professor Julian Trollor, Dr Janelle Weise, Ms Claire Eagleson, Dr Jenna Zhao, Ms Dominique Abagi, and Ms Tahli Hind from the Department of Developmental Disability Neuropsychiatry, Discipline of Psychiatry and Mental Health, UNSW Medicine & Health.

Research Funder: This research is being funded by the Department of Social Services.

3. Inclusion/Exclusion Criteria

Before you decide to participate in this research study, we need to ensure that it is ok for you to take part. The research study is looking to recruit people who meet the following criteria:

- Are a mental health, health, disability, or social service professional.
- Work in NSW.
- Have used the Intellectual Disability Mental Health Connect webtool at least once.

There are no specific exclusion criteria for this study.

4. Do I have to take part in this research study?

Participation in any research study is voluntary. If you do not want to take part, you do not have to.

If you decide you want to take part in the research study, you will be asked to:

- Read the information carefully (ask questions if necessary);
- Complete the online survey.

5. What does participation in this research require, and are there any risks involved?

If you decide to take part in the research study, we will ask you to complete an online survey after using IDMH Connect at least once. The survey will ask you i) demographic questions, ii) what impact the webtool had on your knowledge around intellectual disability mental health and practice, and iii) general feedback about the webtool.

It should take approximately 15 minutes to complete.

Reimbursement and Incentives - At the end of the survey, you can elect to put your name in a draw to win a $100 Coles Myer gift card. There is 1 gift card available for each participant group (1x professional, 1x people with intellectual disability, 1x support networks). The competition will be drawn on 16 October 2023.
