

Consent

Information for CARERS AND HEALTH PROFESSIONALS:

Resource description	Description	Author	Link
Intellectual Disability Mental Health e-Learning Module 10: Consent, decision-making and privacy – a guide for clinicians	This free e-Learning resource has been developed to equip health professionals to provide mental health services to people with an intellectual disability. Module 10 outlines legal and ethical considerations around consent and decision-making and is a useful resource to ensure best practice. Other modules in the e-Learning are also relevant, such as those on communication (modules 5 and 6) and ensuring equality in mental health care (module 9).	Department of Developmental Disability Neuropsychiatry, UNSW Australia	www.idhealtheducation.edu.au
“Part 28 - Consent to medical treatment”.	Fact sheets on consent to medical treatment designed for families, advocates, disability workers and other professionals working with people with intellectual disability. Covers key issues relating to disability and consent to medical treatment.	NSW-cid	http://www.nswcid.org.au/health-fact-sheets.html
“Part 29 - Rights and complaints”	Fact sheets on rights and complaints designed for families, advocates, disability workers and other professionals working with	NSW-cid	http://www.nswcid.org.au/health-fact-sheets.html

Consent

people with intellectual disability.
Covers key issues relating to rights/complaints